Diocesan Stewardship Commission

2002 Report

Membership:

John Badur St. Michaels and All Angels

Hal Culbertson Cathedral of St. James

Robin Douglass St. Michaels and All Angels

Pam Hart St. Paul's, Munster

Arlyne Black St. Paul's, Munster

Rev. Eugene Kohlbecker Trinity, Michigan City

Richard Lauer St. Michaels and All Angels

Rev. Martin Lavengood All Saints, Syracuse

Rev. Tim Ljunggren St. John's, Bristol

John Ritter St. Andrew, Kokomo

Activities:

Provided workshops for the Rally on Evangelism

Provided consultants to parishes as requested

Provided The Episcopal Network for Stewardship newsletter to each parish

Financial:

$990 was spent on training of two consultants. This consisted of attendance at the training of the Stewardship Commission of the Diocese of Indianapolis put on by The Episcopal Network for Stewardship.

Recommendations for action during the upcoming year:

To provide a stewardship element for the Bishop's Cluster Conferences.

To continue to provide consulting services as requested.

To better inform parishes of our consulting services.

To continue to provide the TENS Newsletter to every parish.

To broaden our consultants training.

To continue sending The Vineyard to every parish.

To plan a 2004 workshop for the Stewardship Commission and all stewardship chairpersons of each parish.