

Greater Cathedral Chapter
Submitted by
The Rev. Susan B. Haynes
Priest-in-Charge, Cathedral of St. James

According to the Canons of the Episcopal Diocese of Northern Indiana (Canon 11, Section 2), the Greater Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. James consists of its regular Chapter members, who are members of the parish, plus four additional members, elected by the Chapter and ratified by the Convention every year for two year terms. The Greater Chapter members have been members of other congregations and assist the Chapter and Cathedral in serving the Diocese and beyond.

For 2007, the Greater Chapter members were the Rev. Carolyn G. Jones (extra parochial), the Rev. Richard Lightsey (St. Andrew's Kokomo), Mr. Fred Heasley (Christ the King, Huntington), and the Rev. Larry Biller (All Saints, Syracuse). The Rev. Richard Lightsey and Mr. Fred Heasley are completing their terms this year, and the Cathedral wishes to express its gratitude for their insights, advice and faithful service.

During March of this year, the Rev. Martin Yabroff, departed St. James to accept a call in Tacoma, Washington. In the interim, the Chapter and lay leadership have worked extensively and faithfully to maintain the ministries of the Cathedral and its vital presence in downtown South Bend.

Respectfully submitted,

(The Rev.) Susan B. Haynes
